

Contributing Authors, Editors and Reviewers

Dr. Wanda Eppes, Psy D. Licensed Psychologist and School Psychologist in both Florida and Colorado. Dr. Eppes has worked with children, parents and educational systems as a classroom teacher, consultant, school psychologist and private practice psychologist for 40 years.

Dr. Joanne F. Mahoney, MD. FACT, Family Practice, Internal Medicine, and Palliative Care. Dr. Mahoney of Key Largo, FL has practiced for 20 years and has a strong interest in Integrated Medicine, which treats body, mind, and spirit.

Dr. Robert L. Duncan Jr. M.D. and Ph.D, Medical College of Georgia, Internal Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, Immunology and Microbiology. Private Practice in Internal Medicine, Hudson, FL.

Phyllis Ambrose, BA Communications and Theater MA in Educational Theater. Ms. Ambrose teaches Middle School Drama and Community College Speech Communication. She enjoys teaching Drama and writing plays that use dramatic experiences to teach and enhance learning.

Jim Dougherty, BS Biological Science, MBA. Mr. Dougherty has conceptualized, developed, and published both print and electronic Reading/Language Arts, Math, and Science curriculums for major K-12 publishers.

Vanessa Mae Burke, BS Digital Arts and Design, has developed graphic design for Educational Media as well as churches, the YMCA, medical practices and various sports enterprises.

Teresa Huerta- Kirkland, BA English from California State, teaches Middle School English and Bilingual Instruction, and is a mentor for At Risk Students.

Jan Mulvihill, BS Science and Nutrition, MS Education, teaches elementary school, and is a Wellness Committee Chairperson, Fitness Center Founder, Cooking Buddies Nutrition Educator and a Food Coop Coordinator. She is a published chef and nutrition writer.

Elizabeth Randall, BS Vocational Education and MS English is a former teacher and published writer of education commentary in The Orlando Sentinel, Orlando Weekly, Education Week, and Public School Montessorian.

Kristine Richards, BS Science, MS Science Education, Special High Honors in Science Education, teaches Middle School Science in Florida. Ms. Richards is a published writer and presenter and has facilitated educational programs for students and parents for EPCOT.

M'Lisa Thompson, BA Social Ecology, MS Early Childhood Education, taught Elementary Education in California. She was an EISS and Parent Education /Involvement Workshop Trainer. Ms. Thompson also taught staff Development Courses in Reading Instruction and Differentiated Math.